

Criminal Justice Program Learning Outcomes:

Upon successful completion of this program, graduates will be able to:

- Analyze and explain the functions and roles of all major aspects of the United States criminal justice system.
- Differentiate the institutions, laws and theories that make up the legal system.
- Explain the constitutional constraints under which police and prosecutors must operate in a free society, and the reasoning behind these limitations.
- Explain the importance and application of basic ethical behavior in the exercise of public trust and discretionary authority.
- Explain how multiculturalism and diversity present special challenges to, and opportunities for, the American system of criminal justice.
- Analyze, articulate and communicate criminal justice data and legal information using appropriate technology.
- Demonstrate the ability to record, analyze, interpret and communicate data for decision making and compliance with laws and protocols.

Approval Date: November, 2010