This selective program aims to support LGBTQ leaders in their growth as student activists so that they can continue to inspire change in their communities both before and after transferring.

Students receive:

An academic scholarship each year.

---

Admissions counseling, coaching, and financial education via the Point Community College Conference in Los Angeles during August/September.

---

A personal coach throughout the academic year to ensure students remain on track with their associate degree, or to transfer to a four year institution.

---

Access to the Point Foundation network of LGBTQ scholars, more than 300 alumni, and many others dedicated to seeing LGBTQ students succeed.

Point Foundation requires the following for applications to be considered:

---

Must be enrolled or intending to enroll at an accredited community college in based in the United States, including Hawaii and Alaska, in the fall of 2022.

---

Must have 1-2 years of community college left AND (1) intending to transfer to a bachelor's degree program at a four-year college or university for fall 2023 or fall 2024, OR (2) graduate with an associate degree in fall 2024.

---

Must be "out" as a person who identifies as a member of the LGBTQ community.
